

Being the mother of a deaf child I can tell you that watching my son sign or having a person sign his words is far superior than having a hearing person read his typed words or type my words back to him.....Being the RN Supervisor at CSDF (California School for the Deaf), communication with VRS would be easier, quicker and more accurate than CRS.